SIMPLE RITES HELD FOR MRS. HUBBARD

Funeral of Lamented Woman from Covenant Church.

PRIVATE SERVICES AT HOUSE

Interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Hubbard.

The services were attended by an assemblage representative of every walk only for her patronage of art and of investigation science, and as a leader in the social life of an earlier day, but as an earnest worker for the amelioration of the condition of the poor, and of every form of York. The offer was made to him by for- on the millions invested there by regulat- millions trying it. distress and suffering.

Sense of Personal Loss.

Capital, were many of lesser standing. who could bear witness to the generous said, for political office, even if his elecimpulses which prompted many a gift tion to the offices were assured.

and many a deed of kindness of which Justice Peckham married in 1866 Henand many a deed of kindness, of which the world never knew. Mrs. Hubbard's life was one of so many and such varied interests that her passing has created a Bank of New York. They had two sonssense of personal loss among all sorts Henry Peckham, who died three and conditions of people, such as that of few others in Washington. The public funeral at the church was family only, conducted by Rev. Charles PECKHAM'S ASSOCIATES preceded by a private service for the Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, at Mrs. Hubbard's home, "Twin

In the services at the church, Rev. Mr. Wood was assisted by Rev. G. C. Bratenahl, rector of St. Alban's parish. The clergymen preceded the funeral party down the main aisle to the front of the rostrum, where the casket rested daughters: Mrs. Charles M. Marsh, of New York, and Mrs. Ellas J. Marsh, of New York, and Mrs. Hubbard's sixters inhead and thought and free from every hard, and Mrs. Hubbard's sixters inhead and thought and free from every hard, and Mrs. Hubbard, of Boston, and hard, of Boston, and Mrs. Hubbard, of Boston, and Mrs. Hubbard is strictly the stumbled to the strictly and was different in the stumbled to the strictly and was different in the stumbled too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled, too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled too, and fell to his her, but he stumbled too, and her wolver. Show york, besides the members of the family.

He had strong political convictions, but when on the bench he knew no literate the mount before him, and her product to fellow the started to fee, he leveled the research that was and give each party in every case his just rights. I had as it was and give each party in every case his just rights. I had as an awas and give each party in every case his just rights. I had awas it was and give each party in every case his just rights. I had aw so not of the purest men I awas on the country in the purpose of cobber is Moother and the department of the bands of the department of the bed at the mother department of the hospital and faced on of the her, but when the purpose of cobber is Moother and the department of the head of the struck of the head of the tonch of the her than the purpose of the head and thought and eller to he was a train bound for Washington.

She informed a policeman at U

the twenty-third Psalm, and passages from the last chapter of the Book of Proverbs. By request, he also read Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar." another hymn, "Abide With Me," by the quartet, prayer was offered by Dr. Brate-

As Cortege Left Church.

As the funeral cortege left the church, yesterday. the organist, Harvey Murray, played tributes. Besides those which rested on the casket, there were innumerable wreaths, set pieces, and sprays of cut The members of the congregation conflowers, which were banked about the tributed to the chair, the installation of rostrum, almost concealing the pulpit. which Mrs. Hubbard had been identified of mahogany and lined with plush.

At Rock Creek Cemetery the body was committed to the earth with a prayer by

WILL GET SWIFT JUSTICE.

Ford May Be Extradited to Mary land To-day.

speedy justice in the Maryland courts if ship. present plans are carried out.

George County, stated yesterday that requisition papers for the removal of Ford from the District into the jurisdiction of the Maryland courts have been tion of the Maryland courts have been been at times between 400 and 500 in drawn and are in readiness for the gov- each club ernor's signature. The papers will be presented to the Maryland executive at Annapolis to-day, and as soon as his autograph is affixed Sheriff Hurd will come thusiastic fans, and an interchange of graph is affixed Sheriff Hurd will come sporting gossip was a common diverto Washington for the prisoner, probably sion. The Eastern Club was quartered either this evening or early to-morrow at 910 Pennsylvania avenue, and morning. The sheriff denied that a dep- Maryland Club at a few doors below. he would himself take charge of the pool and recreation rooms, and the East-

Safety and Profit Are Assured

-by depositing your funds in the banking dept. of this company. U. S. Treasury supervision. Interest on all accounts subject to check.

D'Safe Deposit Boxes Rented, $5 Union Trust Co., 15th and H Sts. N. W

Edward J. Stellwagen, President.

PECKHAM DEAD.

Continued from Page One.

firm became Peckham & Rosendale. This In 1869 he was elected district attorney of Albany County. The case of Filkins, the express robber, was tried during his term of office. Later he was engaged in the Johnstown and Grannett murder trials, the trail of the Modocs, the Sessions bribery case, and others created no little sensation at that time. An Ardent Democrat, Mr. Peckham was an ardent and aggressive Democrat. He was president of the Albany Democratic county commit-Rev. Dr. Wood, Assisted by Rev. Mr. tee at one time, had been the presiding Bratenahl, Officiates, but No Eu- officer of several conventions of the logy Is Spoken-Wealth of Floral party, and took an active part in the na-Tributes-Special Music by Choir, tional conventions of 1876 and 1880. He was elected justice of the Supreme Court of this State in 1883, and while holding that position in 1886 was elected an associate justice of the Supreme Court, Following simple rites at the Church of The term of office was fourteen years, the Covenant yesterday afternoon, the and before that term had expired he was States Steel Corporation has decided to body of Mrs. Gertrude Hubbard was appointed by President Cleveland asso- make an effort to control the drink habit borne to its long rest in a grave in Rock clate justice of the Supreme Court of of 25,000 persons in Fayette County, Pa., Creek Cemetery, beside that of her dis- the United States. This was in Decem- interested in the manufacture of coke, tinguished husband, Gardiner Greene ber, 1895. For the last two or three years the justice had not enjoyed good health and there had been many rumors of his Declined Nomination.

mer Gov. David B. Hill, with the assurance that, if elected, he would have the clined, as he was not a candidate, he nold, an old New York merchant, and at that time president of the Mercantile ago, leaving a wife and three children, and Rufus, jr., who died eight years ago,

SAY HIS DEATH IS LOSS TO THE AMERICAN BENCH

Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller had retired when the news was received of Associate Justice Peckham's death, and he issued no formal statement concernduring the service. First came the ten honorary pallbearers, Mr. Justice Har-ily, however, he expressed his deep relan, Gen. John M. Wilson, C. D. Walcott, gret at the death of Justice Peckham Gen. George M. Sternberg, C. C. Glover, and said it came as a great shock to him.

A. L. E. Crouter, of Philadelphia; Prof.
Willis L. Moore, C. Hart Merriam, Gen.

man in point of service on the Supreme

Late Wife.

An ordeal none the less painful because back. The quartet again sang, this time, of the intended expression of sympathy

"Largo," by Mendelssohn. While the as- Harding heard a eulogy of his late wife "Largo," by Mendelssohn. While the as-semblage was gathering previous to the who dedicated the chair to her. Rev. F. service he played "Andante," by Beetho- I. A. Bennett dwelt on Mrs. Harding's ven; "Consolation," by Mendelssohn; value to the church and the loss felt "He Shall Feed His Flock," by Handel; throughout the diocese in her death. "Oh, for the Wings of a Dove," by Men- While the tribute was not entirely undelssohn, and "Nocturne" (G minor), by expected, it temporarily unnerved Bishop Harding. No sign in his face showed There was a wealth of beautiful floral the emotion he felt. It was only after he gaining his senses.

which was suggested several weeks ago were sent by organizations with It is a handsome piece of furniture, made

TWO CLUBS DISBAND.

Are No More.

When the boards of directors of the the wounded woman, Eastern Athletic and Social Club and A call was sent to Casualty Hospital,

The clubs were conceived to meet the uty would be sent, and stated positively Both clubs were fitted up with ample ern Club had a gymnasium. It will not be necessary to take Ford And it all comes about, as the head to Baltimore. He will be hurried to ones say, through faulty organization, so Marlboro, and plans will be expedited for that the clubs are accused by District aucharges to that effect against each now The trouble has come about through the participation in the privileges in arrears, and of individuals, not members, who have been in the rooms from time to time.

RITES FOR MRS. SWARTZELL.

Woman Aged Ninety Years.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Swartzell, mother of George W. F. Swartzell, president of the Swartzell, Rheem & Henzey Company, real estate brokers of body and issued a certificate of death H. G. Reeves, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and this city, will be held to-morrow after- by suicide. The body was removed to was assigned to room 178.

at 11:15 o'clock after an illness of about the aunt years ago, it is said. His mother four weeks. She was ninety years old, is dead, and he did not know whether his lacking one day. She was the widow of John Swartzell, of Siglerville, and had been a resident of this city for the last to locate relatives to notify them of the seven years. She is survived by three death of Short, and after several hours' daughters, Mrs. I. P. Neff, of Siglerville; inquiry a telegram was sent to the firm Mrs. L. L. Leonard, of Malvern Ohio, and by which he had been employed—the Au-Miss Mary Swartzell, of this city; two other sons, Luther A. and M. F. F. of self-lighting eigarettes, 329-341 Sixth Swartzell, and one brother, Dr. John A. Murphy, of Bristol, Tenn.

The telegram stated that Short had

BUY UP BREWERIES STEEL TRUST PLAN

Will Thus Control Liquor Traffic in Coke Fields.

$10,000,000 TO BE INVESTED

Estimated that 3 Per Cent More Can Be Realized on Millions in Fayette County, Pa., by the Proposed the coke workers. Method-Will End the Sale of Beer by the Barrel to Workers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—The United and will invest $10,000,000 in the project to obtain possession of the nine breweries now running inside the county. While the effort being made to merge thus honored had been conspicuous not vember, 1905, at the time of the insurance it is understood that the Steel Corporation is back of the whole move and will liquors for a spree try to regulate the drinking of the the home of the coke worker will revolu-In 1902, Justice Peckham could have foreigners, it being figured that at least tionize coke making. In any event, nominated for governor of New 3 per cent better returns can be gleaned the corporation is willing to spend a few mitting him to drink, but stipulating where and when he shall drink.

No Liquor at Wholesale. The sale of beer by the keg or by the barrel to the coke worker is what the corporation objects to, and this it will try to remedy. For more than a year figures have been gathered on drinking among the coke workers, and it is found German-Americans Attend that for seventy-two hours after each pay day the coke ovens do not run more than two-thirds capacity, and there is scarcely a pay day when hundreds of tons of coke are not ruined by inability to get proper men to care for it in the

The idea is to increase the number of licensed drinking places in the county so that all the workmen will be supplied, but to kill the sale of drink in bulk to

No Beer in Bulk,

Absolute possession of the nine breweries inside the county, it is thought, will accomplish this, and for this purpose $10,-000,000 has been offered. It is purposed to block all other beers in bulk from the county, and not permit any of the nine breweries to sell in bulk to the work-

In this move the corporation is backed by the saloon keepers of Fayette County, the business houses, and most of the taxpayers, as it has been shown that 75 per cent of the county crimes are committed of life in the National Capital, for the of the Mutual Life Insurance Company in the within forty-eight hours after each pay venerable woman whose memory was 1884, and he resigned that position in Nomitted to carry home great bulks of

It is believed that barring liquor from side by side with those who represented support of this State for the Presidential the wit and wealth and wisdom of the nomination in 1904. Justice Peckham de-tetta Arnold, the daughter of D. H. Ar- and he pinched her so cruelly she grew hysterical and cried: "I will scream, Will, if you don't stop!" But the man was desperate, and he knew the woman was afraid of him.

Continued from Page One.

Continued His Torture.

He continued his torture until they were and whispered in her ear. What he said in the is known only by the woman, but it was at the door. his final plea, his last effort. He had saved it until the end. He had been banked his all.

and then the horse slowed to a walk as line, and nearly fainted. I knew then the cab neared the west entrance to the what had happened." station. Twisting around until his face Mrs. Lewis thanked the policeman. She brown eyes, but she hid her face in her hands, and then as the cab stopped, she name came the second report, and the room.

Then, as the girl, with a pitiable, weak physician. "No," was the response or see them. His eyes were riveted on or see them. His eyes were riveted on the form he loved, as his right hand was raised slowly toward his head. He calmly placed the end of the weapon to his temple, looked a last time at his wife, and pulled the trigger. He fell to the collapse. Station employes, cabmen, newsboys, and travelers gathered in hundreds in a few seconds, and Detectives Sears and Horne and Policeman Ehlers. Rev. Charles E. Buck, of the cemetery Maryland Social and Athletic Bodies of the Sixth precinct, had difficulty in reaching the side of the dying man and of the Maryland Social Club met last but before the arrival of the ambulance evening and voted to disband, it meant a taxicab driver pushed forward and volthe breaking up of two organizations unteered to remove the woman to the Walter Ford, the negro held here on a which have been popular during the last hospital. She was placed in the automocharge of attacking Florence Harvey at few years among the scores of young bile, and the chauffeur lost not a second Landover, Md., last Friday, will be given men who have constituted the member- in driving away. The ambulance reached the station a few minutes after the taxicab left, and Short followed his wife. Sheriff Hurd, of Upper Marlboro, Prince social requirements of young fellows of She asked about her husband, and in quired if she could live. She suffered pain, but smothered her groans. She was carried to a private room, where physiclans examined the wounds. It was seen that a corset rib had saved he woman's life. Two of the bullets had entered the back just below the shoulder blade on the left side, while below was the third hole. The wound made by the third bullet was large, and unlike the other two, and physicians learned the last bullet had struck a corset steel, crushing the broken ends of the thin steel

Dropped to the Ground.

But the rib had broken the force of he bullet, which sank only a few inches Had it continued its into the back. course it would have pierced the heart, and Mrs. Short would have died, perhaps instantly. Physicians believe one the two bullets which entered just below the shoulder blade pierced lower end of the left lung, but this has not been definitely ascertained.
When Short was admitted to the hospital physicians saw at a giance that his life would terminate in a short time. Evelyn. A few weeks ago he obtained The shooting occurred about 9 o'clock, and Short died at 12:45 o'clock. The bullet which took his life entered the right temple, passed through the brain, and I last saw Evelyn on Sunday." lodged against the skull. Physicians assert no human power could have saved

nim. He died quietly.

Coroner Viewed Body. noon at 5 o'clock from the residence, 1112 the morgue, where it remains awaiting Rhode Island avenue northwest. Rev. Charles H. Butler, recently acting pastor of Luther Place Memorial Church, will body, and so far as has been learned of 1908, and "The American Idea" Comoff Luther Place Memorial Church, will body, and so far as has been learned of 1908" and "The American Idea" Comtement will be at Sigierville, Pa.

Short has no relatives, but an aunt, who pany, and was considered a clever Mrs. Swartzell died yesterday morning lives in the South. He had lost trace of dancer.

committed suicide, and asked what disposition should be made of the body. No reply has been received.

police of New York City: "Notify Mrs. acter, Mary Lewis, of 2 East 111th street, that William Short dled here to-day. Body about personal liberty. He said his is at the morgue. Wire disposition, opinions on that question were the same Wife's condition serious. Physicians say she has a chance of recovery. in sight of Union Station, when he drew Mrs. Lewis, mother of the girl, was in her slight form to him with one arm, her apartments dressing about 11 o'clock morning, when she heard a knock Mother Nearly Faints.

"I nearly fainted," said Mrs. Lewis playing a losing game, and was now last night at Casualty Hospital, "when showing his last hand, on which he had I saw a policeman. He said he had a message for me, and handed me the tele-She struggled and tried to draw away, gram. I opened it, glanced at the first was before hers, he breathed a few words finished attiring herself, wrote a brief to her, looking directly in her large, message to her invalid husband, who was

Wood, a quartet, consisting of Miss Franseska Kaspar, Mrs. J. Brylawski, Harry Stevens, and J. Walter Humphrey, sang areat personal affection for him. He was one of the purest men I ever knew."

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body.

"Evelyn!" his voice rang out, but she did not look behind and the revolver spoke, a spurt of flame left the barrel, and the girl staggered as the bullet entered her body. tered her body.

"Evelyn!" he called again in a chok-ing, and she promised to control herself usly with her when Mrs. Lewis was admitted to the Alfred Harding Hears Eulogy of wounded girl reeled and clutched at the ! Mrs. Lewis spoke last night in a tone Church, near Thirteenth and H streets, yesterday.

Before delivering his sermon Bishop

States on Mon deaths. He robbed me of my baby weapon into the back of the chorus girl. Shouts and cries filled the air as men subjected her to tortures; he was a blog truesday night.

Met Him at Dance.

and she acknowledging she loved him and Michigan Monday night.

As he dropped to the ground, the revolver clattering on the hard pavement, a negro porter caught the body of the staggering woman just as she was about to married. After the ceremony he sent a telegram to the girl's mother, saying:

Evelyn and I were married to-night. Both well, WILLIAM SHORT. Short and his young wife lived in the Lewis home for three years.

"'I feel jealous of her,' said Short, when asked about his attitude toward Evelyn, 'and I can't overcome it to save oom like an animal," said the mother.

"He always seemed to fear she would run away from him. He would arrange er hats in a row on a shelf, so he could Asheville, N. C pencil and mark all over the bottoms of Bismarck, N. Di Boston, Mass.....
Buffalo, N. Y.... nt of the house while he was away. I Chicago, Ill caught on to that trick, and when Evelyn Cincinnati, Ohio. would come home I would pencil the bottoms of the shoes and fool him.

Then he forged checks and stole Des Moines, Iowa. money, and they caught him. I think he swindled Tiffany & Co. out of a ring valued at $125, and pawned it for $85. I believe he also passed a worthless check on the United Cigar Stores Company, by which five he was employed as a contact of the co the United Cigar Stores Company, which firm he was employed as a confidential and expert accountant, arrived by the had several good positions, but he lattle Rock. Marquette, M ndential and expert accountant.

"He had several good positions, but he lost so much time watching Evelyn he was discharged from every situation he New York, N.Y.... North Platte, Nebr.

"A little daughter died while its father was in the penintentiary and he never Portland, Me saw the child. One day Evelyn was Portland, Oreg. walking in the street on her way to one just the nearly dropped from fright, believing him in Sing Sing. n Sing Sing.

"It was only a few months ago that Toledo, Ohio. he left prison, but since then we would not allow him to live at our home with position with the cigarette manufacturing company, but I believe he was dis-charged before he left for Washington.

Short Reaches City. Short reached Washington Saturday morning and stopped at the Regent Hotel. He had the appearance of a man Acting Coroner Glazebrook viewed the who had been drinking. He registered as bourg.

Sailed from foreign ports: Lapland, from Dove Mauretania, from Queenstown; Grosser Kurfuerst, from Cherbourg; Baltic, from Queenstown. Short had been in the hotel a short time when he went to his wife and forpade her appearing at the Saturday matinee. He stayed in the room until about 8 o'clock, when he went to the lobby and asked to have a check cashed for $10. The hotel management refused to cash the check.

Largest Morning Circulation.

PERSONAL LIBERTY DEFINED BY HEARST

Reception to Candidate.

HEAR VENERABLE PHYSICIAN

Gaynor Denounced as Demagogue by Dr. Abraham Jacobi-Hearst Contrasts Reformer and Good Citizen. Fusion Candidate for Comptroller Scores Candidate for Mayor,

New York, Oct. 24.-The German-Americans who attended the reception in honor of William R. Hearst this afternoon at the Hotel Astor applauded very heartily when the venerable Dr. Abraham Jacobi, in his somewhat old-fashioned dress, told them that William J. Gaynor was a demagogue and a public danger.

The physician, who is now in his eightieth year, was the principal guest of the German independence committee, save for Mr. Hearst himself. The reception in Mr. Hearst's honor was gotten up by German-Americans who are nterested in obtaining Sunday laws that entertainment, or in respectable recrea-Assails Judge Gaynor.

will permit citizens to use the first day of the week for religious observance, rest.

Mr. Hearst came in just after William A. Prendergast, the fusion candidate for comptroller, had said that Judge Gaynor has reached the point where he is giving SPECIAL NOTICES. The following telegram was sent to the the Sullivan family a certificate of char-

Mr. Hearst had a good deal to say whether or not he was a candidate. He said he had fought against drunkenness and gambling because he could not see why they should be allowed to contaminate healthful, open-air amusements. He thought he understood the German ideal of personal liberty, which, it seemed to him, was the American idea as well.

Not Liberty, but License. "I urge you, therefore," he went on, 'not to allow yourselves to be associated even temporarily for political purposes with the element which stands in this campaign, not for personal liberty, but association, the whole cause of personal

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, wounded girl receied and clutched at the air as the second bullet entered her which indicated she hated Short. "Did Washington, Sunday, Oct. 24, 1996-8 p. m. he suffer before he died?" she asked a The cool wave now covers the Eastern States, and nahl. The quartet again sang, this time, "Lead, Kindly Light," and benediction, pronounced by Dr. Bratenahl, brought the simple service to a close. There was no word of eulogy spoken.

Then, as the girl, with a pitiable, weak prossican. "No," was the response. "Fate has been cruel to me," said Mrs. there has also been a considerable fall in temperature in man who was trying to kill her, he cried out the third time with a note of agony in his voice, "Evelyn!" and a third bulling with a pitiable, weak "Fate has been cruel to me," said Mrs. Lewis. "Why couldn't he suffer? Why couldn't he suffer? Why was the response.

"Lead, Kindly Light," and benediction, was undergone by Bishop Alfred Harding when he attended the dedication of a bishop's chair and pulpit at the Calvary in his voice, "Evelyn!" and a third bulling with a pitiable, weak "Fate has been cruel to me," said with a pitiable, weak "Then, as the girl, with a pitiable, weak "Fate has been cruel to me," said with a pitiable, weak "Then, as the girl, with a pitiable, we there has also been a considerable fall in tempera-

o the Middle Atlantic coast during Tuesday or ran to the assistance of the reeling on her life, and now he has tried to kill Temperatures will gradually moderate in Eastern sections, while higher temperatures in the Central valleys on Monday will be followed by somewhat asphalt unconscious and died before regaining his senses.

case of love at first sight, he proposing the Lower Lakes light variable, shifting to southerly and increasing; on the Upper Lakes moderate to brisk southerly, shifting to northwesterly on Superior

Local Temperature.

Midnight, 49; 2 a. m., 48; 4 a. m., 47; 6 a. m., 45; 8 a. m., 45; 10 a. m., 46; 12 noon, 47; 2 p. m., 47; 4 p. m., 48; 6 p. m., 45; 8 p. m., 45; 10 p. m., 43. Maximum, 49; minimum, 43.

Relative humidity—8 a. m., 72; 8 p. m., 57. Rainall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), 0.01. Hours of sunshine, 0.

Turnverein, has presented to the library 300 volumes of German books of different ature same date last year-Maximum,

Temperatures in Other Cities. "He would follow her from room to Temperatures in other cities, together with the amount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8

Vicksburg, Miss.

Tide Table.

To-day-High tide, 4:29 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. Low Condition of the Water.

pecial to The Washington Herald. Harpers Ferry, W. Va., Oct. 24.—Potomac clear and Shenandoah slightly cloudy. Ocean Steamships. New York, Oct. 24.-Arrived: Cedric, from Liver pool, October 13.
Arrived out: Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, at Cher-

DR. COOK took two years to reach the north pole. You can reach it in one month. But how? You must prepare yourself by having your winter suits and overcoats repaired by the expert tailor, J. Klein, by that time you will be prepared for the journey. Do you want to know the road? Yes? Go to

J. KLEIN, the Tailor, Cleaning, Pressing, and Repairing, 1609 17th st. nw. 'Phone North 1417.

THE PALAIS ROYAL.

TO-DAY

Broken lots in all departments are offered at reductions in prices sufficent to create an immediate sale. A good plan will be to take elevator to fourth floor and note the contents of the various tables on all floors. Don't forget the basement.

$18.50 Were to $20 Were to $30

Were to $45

Regular patrons know these garments. The only point we need impress is-do not become infatuated with the suit or dress that is not your size. All sizes will be found in one style or another. While we will lose considerable money in the sale of these garments, we have consolation in the thought of the many thousands of others sold at a fair profit, and that we are rid of nuisances-broken lots.

The Palais Royal, G St., 11th St.

OFFICE OF THE ASSESSOR OF THE DIS OFFICE OF THE ASSESSOR OF THE DIS-trict of Columbia, Washington, D. C., October 5, 1999.—Notice is hereby given that on the THIRTY-FIRST DAY OF OCTOBER, 1999, will expire all lucenses issued by the Assessor of the District of Columbia to apothecaries, auctioneers, automobile storage warehouses, banks and bankers, bill posters, billiard, pool, and other tables, bowling alleys, pro-prietors of bar-rooms, brewers and brewers agents, boarding houses, public baths, mediums, clairvoyants, palmists, &c., cattle dealers, commission merchants, cigar dealers, contractors, carriage and wagon makers. fectioners, dealers in second-hand personal pr in gasoline, dealers in kerosene oil and oils of like grades, distillers, fuel hucksters, florists, proprietors of hotels, employment agents, investment companies, rourietors of public halls, public parks, livery sta-bles, laundries (steam and hand), land and improve-ment companies, railroad ticket brokers, restaurants and eating houses, real estate agents, proprietors of siot machines, proprietors of theaters, undertakers, and wholesale liquor dealers. All persons desiring for criminal license, with the right to BICHARDS, Assessor, D. C. octl,12.18,19.25,26 gamble, the license to steal, lest, by that

OFFICE OF THE LANSTON MONOTYPE MA-

Wedding in New Home of German Society.

hoofd-Arrangements for Opening of Winter Season and intellectual education of the growing generation, but it has now been discovered that little Dan Cupid has got in some fine work there, and has used the hall as a temple where hymeneal bonds may be united.

The first to fall victims to his darts were Ed. Brauninger and Miss Airie Bethan, members of the Turnverein, who rare united in wedlock in the turner hall lifereferred. Draughon's Practical Business College. were united in wedlock in the turner hall by Rev. Dr. George Brodthage, paster of St. John's German Estheran Church, and a member of the Columbians. H. Pieper, another member, acted as best man, and Miss Martha Fink was the maid of

Prof. A. Werner Spanboofd, of the Turnverein, has presented to the library The library, which has only recently been installed in its new quarters, consists already of nearly 1,000 volumes, comprising many celebrated works of German literature. Arrangements are under way to make the opening of the winter season, Sunday, November 7, a thorough success. The committee intends to observe the event with the celebration of the 150th birthday anniversary of Friedrich von Schiller. Social Literary Society opened its winter season last Saturday with a pro gramme at the residence of its president, Miss Anita Schade. Those who conributed numbers to the programme were

Miss Emma Bender, Frank Claudy, Miss E. Perkins, Miss Standiford, Miss Amy C. Leavitt, Mrs. William Douglas-Windom and Miss M. Dony. At a meeting of the Hessen-Darmstaedter Unterstuetzungsverein, or sick bene appointed to make arrangements for the celebration of a Hessen kirmess and oys ter roast to be held in the near future Diegelmann, L. Mueller, John N. Autl E. Spahn, John Auth, Joe Neuland, Karl Jahn, Christopher Beilstein, John Meininger, John Meinberg, Gregor Nix, and Henry Weber. Saengerbund Hall Thursday evening, November 4, for the benefit of the Ruppert Home for Old Folks. At the regular meeting of the United German Societies this week, Kurt Voelckner, president, and Gustav Bender, secretary of the society will make their reports on the annual onvention of the German-American Al liance, which met recently at Cincinnati titude with regard to the popularization of Rock Creek Park as advocated by The Washington Herald, will also be brought up for final action.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK.

Engine of Freight Train Explodes Near Cincinnati, Ohio. Cincinnati, Oct. 24.-Two men were killed and three others seriously injured ploded while running at full speed on the Big Four Railroad near Gano station, twenty miles north of here, this after-The dead are Oscar Price, engineer Springfield, Ohio; Charles Wyceff, engineer, Middletown, Ohio. The injured are Harry Robb, head brakeman, Reading, Ohio; Claude Mock, fireman, Springfield, Ohio, and Harry Jones, conductor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Largest Morning Circulation.

EDUCATIONAL.

ST. MARGARET'S Boarding and Day School and Kindergarten, Cor. Conn. and Cal. avenues.
Complete course from Kindergarten to College.
Boys admitted to kindergarten and elementary grades.
Thorough foundation work. Resident French teacher.
Miss Lippincott and Miss Baker, Principals. PRIVATE LESSONS IN MATHEMATsity graduate; 20 years' experience; literary work revised. Prof. J., Station G, Box 2513, City. 306

NOW OPEN FOR STUDENTS Prof. John E. Ruebsam's school for practical in-struction in Mechano Therapy, consisting of Resist-ing Movement Treatment, Deep Breathing Exercise, Muscle Beating, and Gymnasium Exercises, For further information call at the Pope Building, COLUMBIA SCHOOL Day and Evening. 511 G st. nw. Preparatory coach. Prepares for uni-ersity. Individual instruction. Languages-English, German, French, Span-European trained teachers. Trial lesson: Music, art, civil service, bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, Moderate. Schol-SHEPHERD, Ph. D., Principal.

ATIONAL CATHEDRAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Prepares for all Colleges and Universities. Address
E.L. GREGG, The Lass-Jahnston Bidg., Washington, D. C. SH.A.B

STENOGRAPHY, Typewriting, and Mathematica. THE MILTON SCHOOL, Phone M. 4046. 1403 H st. nw. National University

Gift to Library Made by Prof. Span- EVENING SESSIONS EXCLUSIVELY, 41st Session Now Open. Not only is the new hall of the Columbia Turnverein a center for the physical bia Turnverein a center for the physical Telephone M. 130.

ANTED Bookkeepers,
Stenographers,
Telegraphers. MORE BANKERS in the 16 States in which Jno. F. Draughon's 30 Colleges are located, indorse these Business Col-

EMERSON INSTITUTE 1740 P St. N. W. FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN

Established 1852. SEVENTY students now in college work. College prepara-tory a specialty. Also Annapolis West LOW H. RANDOLPH, Principal.

$1,800,000

5th year. Catalogue free, 311 EAST CAPITOL ST. ILLUSTRATING and CARTOONING OUR METHOD OF INSTRUCTION BASED OF Twenty years' experience. We Can Teach You. Terms Moderate Call or write for particulars. THE WASHINGTON SCHOOL OF ILLUSTRATING WILL H. CHANDLEE, Directo

WINS-

PIANO, HARMONY, 1107 O st. nw. Graduate W. M College, Pupil Peabody Conservatory, Phone, N. 6934

CHRISTIAN XANDER'S RENCH WINES and DISTILLATES -Money will be saved by pur-

Quality 909 7th St. Phone M. 274.

fore high tariff goes into effect,

DIED. SWARTZELL—On Sunday. October 24.
1999, at 11:15 a. m., SARAH, widow of John Swartzell, aged ninety years.
Funeral from her late residence, 1112
Rhode Island avenue northwest, on Tuesday. October 28, at 5 o'clock.
Interment at Siglerville, Pa., on Wednesday, October 27, at 3 o'clock. Kindly omit flowers.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS. GEORGE P. ZURHORST,

301 East Capitol Street. J. WILLIAM LEE, Funeral Director Chapel and Modern Crematorium. Modest prices

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GEO. C. SHAFFER designs very reasonable in price in. 14th & Eye sts, nw. Beautiful floral de 'Phone 2416 Main.

FUNERAL FLOWERS, GUDE.

